

Milan, March 24th, 2022

Object: Communication to the investors - Fraudulent use of identity

Generali Investments is warning the public against the fraudulent use of its brand in the context of an offering of investment products in medical real estate (follow-up care and rehabilitation centers and retirement residences).

In particular, Generali Investments has been made aware of an information brochure in French referring to investments in such follow-up care and rehabilitation centers and retirement residences in the form of term deposits with very high returns, and fraudulently using its brand. Generali Investments does not offer any investment in the above products, and is not involved in any way in the structuring and offering of such product.

Generali Investments urges its clients and prospects to be extremely cautious and not to respond to any solicitation to invest in these products.

Generali Investments is a commercial brand referring to Generali Investments Partners S.p.A. Società di gestione del risparmio, Generali Insurance Asset Management S.p.A. Società di gestione del risparmio, Generali Investments Luxembourg S.A. and Generali Investments Holding S.p.A.

Generali Investments